FINANCIAL BID

S. No.	Particulars	Maximum discount offered on M.R.P.
		Stationery Items (20% weightage)	Personal Care Products (35% weightage)	General Products (35% weightage)	Bedding Accessories (10% weightage)
		(A)	(B)	(C)	(D)
1	Running a General Store and Stationery Shop at IISER Tirupati.

General Financial & Bidding Conditions

1. Mandatory Comprehensive Quoting (All-or-Nothing Clause)

- 1.1. The bidder must quote a discount percentage for all four mandated categories: (A) Stationery Items, (B) Personal Care Products, (C) General Products, and (D) Bedding Accessories.
- 1.2. Partial bidding shall not be permitted. The bidder shall quote a valid numerical discount percentage against each of the four categories.
- 1.3. A genuine 0% discount shall be considered a valid quote. However, leaving any category blank, quoting an invalid/non-numerical value, or otherwise failing to provide a valid discount percentage for any category shall render the financial bid non-responsive and liable for rejection.

2. Pricing Integrity and MRP Compliance

- 2.1. The quoted discount percentage shall be a flat discount rate applied strictly to the Maximum Retail Price (MRP) printed on the respective products.
- 2.2. The offered discount percentages must remain firm and fully applicable throughout the entire duration of the contract period. No escalation, modification, or renegotiation of the quoted discounts will be entertained under any circumstances once the financial bid is opened.
- 2.3. The bidder shall not charge any amount over and above the applicable price arrived at after applying the quoted discount to the printed MRP, except where specifically permitted under the tender conditions.

3. Financial Evaluation and Determination of the Highest Evaluated Bidder

3.1. The financial evaluation shall be based on the Weighted Average Discount (WAD) and shall not be based on a simple arithmetic average of the discounts quoted for the four categories.

3.2. The Weighted Average Discount shall be calculated as follows:

$$WAD = (A \times 20\%) + (B \times 35\%) + (C \times 35\%) + (D \times 10\%)$$

where:

A = Discount quoted for Stationery Items;

B = Discount quoted for Personal Care Products;

C = Discount quoted for General Products; and D = Discount quoted for Bedding Accessories.

3.3. The bidder securing the highest Weighted Average Discount shall be ranked as the Highest Evaluated Bidder (HEB), subject to the fulfilment of all other terms and conditions of the tender.

3.4. The Institute reserves the right to verify the calculations and arithmetic accuracy of the financial bids before final determination of the ranking.

4. Tie-Breaking Protocol

4.1. In the event that two or more bidders obtain exactly the same highest Weighted Average Discount, the bidder having the highest average annual turnover during the three immediately preceding completed financial years shall be ranked higher.

4.2. The turnover shall be determined on the basis of the audited financial statements/turnover certificate submitted by the bidder as part of the tender.

4.3. In the event that the turnover is also identical, the Institute may adopt an appropriate tie-breaking mechanism as specified in the tender or seek a final competitive offer from the tied bidders, subject to applicable procurement rules.

5. Prevention of Unbalanced Bidding

5.1. Bidders are free to quote competitive discounts for each category. However, where the quoted discounts appear to be prima facie abnormal, commercially unsustainable or inconsistent with the bidder's ability to perform the contract, the Institute may seek written clarification and supporting financial justification from the bidder. The bidder shall provide such clarification and supporting documents within the time specified by the Institute.

5.2. Where, upon examination of the clarification and supporting documents, the Institute is satisfied that the quoted discounts are commercially unsustainable and may adversely affect the bidder's ability to fulfil the contractual obligations, the bid may be rejected in accordance with the applicable procurement provisions.

5.3. Mere variation in the discounts quoted across different categories shall not, by itself, constitute a ground for rejection, provided the quoted discounts are valid and the bidder is otherwise capable of fulfilling the contractual obligations.

Note:

1. H1 (Highest Weighted Average Discount %) shall be calculated manually by the Institute based on the flat discount percentages quoted by the bidder against each category in the BoQ, strictly in accordance with Clause 3.2 of the tender document. The H1 determined and declared by the Institute on the basis of the above calculation shall be final and binding on all bidders. In case of any discrepancy between the H1 displayed/generated by the portal and the H1 calculated by the Institute as per Clause 3.2, the H1 calculated and declared by the Institute shall prevail and shall be considered final for the purpose of evaluation and award of the contract.

2. The Financial Bid should not be disclosed in the Technical Bid.
